Internet & Computer User Agreement

In order to use a computer workstation, patrons must have an account in good standing with Carlsbad City Library.

The Library upholds and affirms the right of each individual to have access to constitutionally protected material. The Library also affirms the right and responsibility of parents to determine and monitor their children's use of Library materials and resources.

The Internet workstation is for information searches and educational activities. Illegal activities are not permitted.

The Library cannot be responsible for information gathered on the Internet. Not all information found on the Internet is accurate, complete, up-to-date, legal or philosophically acceptable to all individuals. Children under 12 years of age must have a parent or authorized individual remain with them while they use the Internet. Computers are not equipped with filtering software.

Users, or parents of minors who are users, are liable for damages to the equipment. Failure to use the workstation appropriately and responsibly as defined in this agreement may result in revocation of equipment use privileges.

Library facilities are shared community facilities. As a user of computing resources at the Library, you must not display on Library computer screens, messages, images or sounds that might reasonably create an atmosphere of discomfort or harassment for others. For security purposes, the City of Carlsbad Information Technology Department may monitor activity on all computers. User assumes no right to privacy. User is responsible for any and all activity that occurs on the computer to which they are assigned.

Policies are subject to change without notice and at the Library's discretion.
